The Evil Kelly Gang Strikes Again!!

Our sleepy settlement of Victoria has recently been under attack by an evil gang of criminals. The police have been after this gang for years and are closer than ever to catching them especially after the recent events.

The infamous Kelly gang has attacked an innocent small town called Euroa. The people of the town were forcefully taken from a train station and held hostage by the criminals in a cold locked shed till the next day. The Kelly gang made fools of the police by overwhelming the small police force with excise violence. They took hostages and separated the husbands from there wives and children. Before the gang invaded the bank, they completely vandalized the telegraph station. It took 6 days before they could send messages again out of the station. The criminals took 2,000 pounds in cash and burned all of the substantial debts that are required to run the bank.

The Kelly Gang

The Kelly Gang is a group of criminals who are friends and family that were once a poor family. They are lead by the experienced bushranger and previous partner of Harry power, Ned Kelly. Instead of working to make an honest living they turned to the easy path of robbing people. Crime seems to run through the family, and they have sadly dragged down their brothers with them. They all have joined forces to become the last of the Australian bushrangers.

The Kelly Gang has been striking against the legitimate by stealing their livestock and spending the money on beer and personal effects. They have been known to sell legal livestock for a low price to a fellow, but that was stolen from another. If you have worked for what you have and want to keep it, you might be the next target of there crimes. The police have been assaulted, shot at, and killed by the Kelly Gang.
